

What is one engagement tool you use in your classes to facilitate interaction?

Student-student interaction	Student-content interaction	Student-instructor interaction	I'm not sure where this fits, but it works for me!
Break out into small groups in the classroom, or think-pair-share Add comment Break out rooms Add comment problem solving sessions Add comment Peer review activities in breakout rooms Add comment	student presentations (individual and group) Add comment clicker questions (in person classes) Add comment Kahoot Add comment iclicker... I am hoping for equivalent iclicker-like options via zoom/canvas Add comment	office hours (but how does this work remotely... let everyone be in your "office" at the same time?) Add comment Polls Add comment Asking questions that require a thumbs up sign Add comment I have my independent study students share their screen	Discussions fit in all of these boxes I think Add comment