Student-student interaction

Break out into small groups in the classroom, or think-pair-share

Break out rooms

problem solving sessions

Peer review activities in breakout rooms

Student-content interaction student presentations (individual and group) clicker questions (in person classes)

Kahoot

iclicker... I am hoping for equivalent iclicker-like options via zoom/canvas

Student-instructor interaction office hours (but how does this work remotely... let everyone be in your "office" at the same time?)

Asking questions that require a thumbs up sign

I have my independent study students share their screen with me and demonstrate their thinking by drawing a flow chart.

I'm not sure where this fits, but it works for me!

Discussions fit in all of these boxes I think
